

Foundation of Public & Equality in Labour and Rewards

Education & Training

The right to obtain a level of expertise in a role wanted by the individual as well as needed by the organisation in a certain field or region. Education by teachers also being member of the foundation.

Rights of Equality

Every new member has the same rights on education, income, a place to live and protection of home and family. All works are public domain and property of the collective or society.

Basic Level Income

Every member in training or labour has the right on a basic income. an income for everyone the same and in every region enough to have a living of decency and money to support self & family.

World Wide Charity

Profits of this world wide foundation is to support all charitable goals which empower health and education world wide.
Profits also be used for attracting new members.

Join our noble initiative!